For County Assessor, Wm. W. RENNINGER.

assessor. I will appreciate your appointment, and if elected will try to make a fair and just assessment. I feel just this way in regard to public officers: That persons holding them are public servants, and should try their very best to serve all alike. I also think that the people of Dakota county know what they want from the different ones taking for these offices, and if the voters and taxpayers want me for county assessor, let them say so by their votes on election day, so that if elected, I will feel that I have been fairly elected by the legal voters and will try to serve all alike.

D. C. STINSON.

Republican nominee for County Judge, is making his first canvass for a county office. His upright and straightforward manner of dealing with the people during his long residence in the county merits the support of every voter who stands for good government.

Items of Interest from our Exchanges

Newcastle items in Ponca Leader: A. E. Walbridge has sold his stock of merchandise to Joe Wilson of Butte, Neb. We understand the stock will be shipped out of Newcastle. Pender Republic: Mel Niebuhr is here from Sioux City to visit home folks for a few days. Mrs. Moses Warner of Lyons was visiting old friends at Pender over Sunday.

Ponca Journal: John V. Pearson was at Lincoln the first of the week where he appeared before the supreme court to argue a case from the district court of Dakota county in which Mr. Pearson is the attorney. Ponca Leader: J. V. Pearson, county attorney, was transacting business in Dakota City Monday. Rev. M. D. Berg went to Dakota City Tuesday morning to spend until Friday noon visiting Rev. Oberholzer.

Sergeant Bluff items in Sloan, Ia. Star: Gibson Bates has been enjoying for some time, a visit from his brother, Leonard Bates, of Los Angeles, Cal. also a visit from his sister, Mrs. Grace Miller, of Spokane, Wash. They expect to soon return to their homes. Lyons Mirror: M. M. Warner, who has his brother, E. J. Warner, at the Hot Springs, in Arkansas, writes that he enjoyed the trip very much; that the country is beautiful and that there are plenty of negroes down there. The "Merry" is in charge of his wife, and if we all short, please excuse me as I have not had the office in charge for three years and may fall a little to the leeward.

Sioux City Journal, 10th: working in the Owl restaurant at Emerson, Neb., where she has been engaged as a waitress since Saturday last, Miss Minnie Burgett, for whom her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Burgett, 2001 West Second street, and the police have been searching since Monday, has been located, and Mr. Burgett has left for the purpose of persuading his daughter to return home.

Sioux City Journal 9th: Frank French, who is promoting the sugar-beet industry in South Dakota City, recently made a trip to Spencer, Ia., where he purchased forty tons of cabbage to be made into kraut. The consignment, which filled two cars, arrived yesterday and is being unloaded in the west end of the Milwaukee yards, from where it is conveyed across the combination bridge to the old foundry in South Sioux City, which for the present sea on will be the scene of operations.

Hartington News: Bird Francis returned to his home in Hartington Saturday after a pleasant visit here with Henry DuFrie and family. Geo. Zapp and family of Emerson returned home Monday after a visit here with the Greenwood family and other relatives. An infant son was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Garvey at Jackson Tuesday morning when Mrs. Garvey was staying with her sister. The baby died a few hours after wards and was brought to Hartington Wednesday and buried in the family lot.

Pender Times: Harry Kramwider spent Sunday in Dakota county. Judge Graves was a Dakota county visitor Wednesday. Mrs. J. W. Chambers returned from a visit in South Sioux City Saturday. J. M. Severson is home from an extended trip to the coast. He visited all the large towns from Los Angeles to Seattle. He says the latter town is very lively, as is also Portland and Tacoma. San Francisco is having all kinds of trouble. Not only her grafters are causing her trouble—to and them in the penitentiary—but she cannot get half enough laborers to rebuild the stricken city. The plague is also causing trouble and anxiety. Mr. Severson says the plague stories are much overdrawn.

Sioux City Journal, 7th: J. G. Snell yesterday looked a catch of the blue channel variety in Crystal lake which weighed twenty-one pounds. This is the largest catfish caught this season with a hook and line. Mr. Snell also caught another "cat" which weighed fourteen pounds. The black bass are not biting very freely at the lake. Dr. C. H. Maxwell, of Dakota City, N. B., has received some rambling epistles from Mr. Estella Werder, of Chicago, former county clerk of Dakota county, a few years ago, and who did other crazy acts which kept residents of the county in a state of fear. For shooting at the clerk she served time in both the penitentiary and the insane asylum. She was paroled from the asylum with the understanding that she keep away from Dakota county.

Sioux City Journal 7th: Another distracted parent has appealed to the police to locate his missing daughter. That a young woman who for several days last week conducted herself in a mysterious manner at Homer, Neb. is their daughter, Miss Minnie Burgett, is the belief of Mr. and Mrs. M. Burgett, 2001 West Second street. Mr. Burgett called at the police station yesterday and gave a description of their daughter. She is 32 years old, about five feet five inches in height, has dark hair and dark eyes and mole on the cheek and eyebrows, and weighs about 140 pounds. The parents received a postal card from the girl at Dakota City about ten days ago, and from Dakota City she evidently went to Homer, N. B. The girl had not been in good health, and last April the parents took her to Portland, Ore., where they remained until August. The girl appeared to be much improved and went on the road to a toilet soap. A girl who answers Miss Burgett's description in the small detail arrived at Homer on foot last week. She gave her name as Miss Minnie Jones, but refused to tell much about herself. Her peculiar actions aroused the citizens, and they reported the matter to the marshal who kept her at his own home until Friday, when he took her to Naacora and upon her request put her on a train bound for Emerson, from which place she was to go to Allen. It developed, however, that she did not leave the train at Emerson, and her present whereabouts are unknown. At Homer the girl entered several houses without invitation and insisted on sitting down and making herself at home. If peculiar behavior indicated that she was mentally unbalanced, but her intelligent conversation on various subjects showed her to be a woman of education and refinement.

A CUT RATE PRICE. This is the first campaign in Nebraska in which political bosses cut no figure. The people will nominate their candidates and afterwards elect them. You are one of the people and should take an active interest in these primaries and elections hereafter. Politics from now on means a square deal for the masses; lower passenger rates, lower freight rates, less extortion by trusts and combinations. These things can only be accomplished by every honest voter making it a part of his business. The people can only know what is really going on by reading the newspapers. But you ought to read a newspaper that can print the truth about all candidates; a paper that has no self-interest in politics; whose owners are not office-holders or office-seekers. The publishers think the STATE JOURNAL is such a paper and in order to prove it to you make the special offer of only 50 cents from now until after election; seventy-five cents if you want the Sunday also. The earlier you send in your order the more you get for your money. Lincoln is the news center.

His Dear Old Mother. "My dear old mother who is now eighty three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Unon, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affords, the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles. For sale at Leslie's drug store. 50c per bottle.

Real Estate Transfers. J. F. Stanford and wife to D. L. Fairbanks, total land 21 block 33, Joy Place, South Sioux City, Neb., $4,275. Geo. W. Thacker and wife to Sanford K. Brown, section 13-28-8, wd., 1920. C. E. Yates and wife to Sarah M. Yates, lots 1, 2, 3 and 4 in block 1, Gilberts Addition to South Sioux City, wd., 3500.

A Criminal Attack on an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube called the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. intend to make their home. Mrs. John Winters of Emerson, visited Mrs. Herman Renze Friday. Our stock of cotton and wool blankets is now in and we can supply your wants in this line. Carl Anderson. J. P. Beacom, Prof. Donohoe and Mrs. Quinn were city passengers Saturday.

Thos Hartnett and John Daley of Jackson passed through here Saturday bound for Omaha. Bring us your butter, eggs and produce and get the highest market price. Carl Anderson. John Hartnett's barn was completely burned to the ground Saturday. The starting of the fire is a mystery. It broke out about half past nine and a few minutes the entire barn was a blaze. The only solution to the fire is that there was about thirty tons of hay in the barn, some of which was not thoroughly cured, and which may have started the blaze from spontaneous combustion. The loss is about $2,000, with $700 insurance.

Mike Beacom came home Saturday from South Dakota, having proved up on his claim. Just received, an up to date stock of fall and winter millinery goods. Satisfaction guaranteed. Miss Johanna Mandy. Bates and daughter Myrtle went to the sand hills Wednesday, to visit her parents and other relatives. Mrs. Lewis Smith and Will Jastram, were Sioux City passengers Tuesday. Mrs. Smith returned Wednesday, and Mrs. Jastram Friday.

Homer's mystery is a mystery no longer. She was Minnie Burgett and gave her name here as Minnie Jones. Altho, acting in a somewhat strange manner, she was sharp enough to evade all questions and give her parents, who are looking for her, the slip. Religion was the subject on which her mind became whirling some time ago. She is always tired, and solicits for toilet soap. They are residents of Sioux City and the girl had been visiting relatives at Riverside when she disappeared.

The family of Rev. Smith returned from Indiana, Tuesday. The Dorcas society met with Mrs. S. A. Combs last Saturday, and as we went out there expecting to get our breakfast (and did not) we, in our desperation, worked with a will and quilted one quilt and finished one that had a few rows quilted at a former meeting. Mrs. Combs says that the Free-Press editor misconstrued her meaning when he said we were to have breakfast. We don't think she saved anything though for when dinner time came, we ate, and we ate, and we ate, till we couldn't eat any more and everyone voted a pleasant, as well as a profitable day. It pays to employ the Dorcas.
